The next day have the children cut out their suitcase and fold along the line to “close” the suitcase. The children can lick stamps from foreign countries and paste them on the outside of their “suitcases”. They looked like travel stickers. The stamps I used were stickers and came in a big package and were very inexpensive. The pattern ...

My mother told me that 'paper bag quilts' or 'brown bag quilts' often refer to the process. It's using most any scrappy pattern & you simply pull the fabric pieces out of the bag in an effort to not get too matchy-matchy, if you know what I mean. Pulling from the bag gives you a more random look to the quilt.
