Question: "What is the story of the Old Testament?". Answer: In the very beginning, God was already there. For His own good pleasure, God created time and the universe by the power of His word, turning nothing into something. On the sixth day of creation, God made something unique: mankind—a man and a woman—created in His likeness.

I like God's questions because they tend to have multiple levels. First there is a simple surface level. Then there is the deeper level that speaks to more than just the person He is talking to. I wanted to do a quick study that looks at some of my favorite questions that God has asked in the Old Testament.

Bible Study on great questions from God in the Bible

The various appearances of God in the Old Testament are ironic, for they frequently produce a reaction opposite to what we might expect. In Genesis, God appears in physical human form. He walks and talks with Abraham in the guise of three men, and he even wrestles with Jacob on the banks of the Jabbok River.
