This is an expository paper written to explain and inform the reader about how the Family System Framework applies to one's family. Because it is a personal account, it is appropriate to use a personal perspective (my family, I believe, etc.) and to include real life examples. No references are required; this is not a research paper.

The Hard Way. For some of us, sitting down and finishing a comprehensive personal history can be quite difficult. Notice that I said finish and not begin because it seems like we're all very good at beginning things, but it's the finishing that makes the difference.. Well, here's a way to write that personal history and finish it bit by bit.
