Good Afternoon, I did a quick search outside of this site, as well as within this site, and I was either blind to the answer or just couldn't find it. Is there a conversion guide from 5th ed D&D to Pathfinder? Some of my friends have been noticing that 5th ed is great for getting new players into RPGs as it is an easier (or just less complex) rule set.

Since this is a 3.5/Pathfinder handbook, what I'm interested in measuring is how the classes have changed. So with no further ado, here's the table of whether the Pathfinder classes have gone up or down in relative power from how they were in 3.5. Note once again that this measures relative change.

Pathfinder has slightly higher ability score values than D&D 5 (at least with low-level characters), so this might lead to slight imbalance for that reason. A more balanced method would be to first discard the character's Pathfinder racial ability score adjustments and then add the adjustments, if any, due to D&D 5.
